- d. shall preserve order and decorum and decide questions of order;
- e. shall when called upon to decide on a point of order or practice, make the decision without unnecessary comment and shall cite the rule or authority applicable to the case;
- f. may, (except where the Head of Council is disqualified to vote by reason of pecuniary interest or otherwise) vote with the other members on all questions and any question on which there is an equality of votes shall be deemed to be a negative vote; and
- g. shall preside at all meetings of Council.

16.5.2 Authority - Chair - Head of Council - absent

Subject to an appeal to the Council, and in the absence of the Head of Council, the Chair shall have the same authority while presiding at the meeting as the Head of Council would have if present.

16.5.3 Gavel - use - considered - in order

The use of the gavel shall always be considered to be in order.

Article 6 – Meetings

16.6.1 Inaugural - time for

The inaugural meeting of the Council following a regular election shall be held on the first Thursday in December in the Council Chambers of City Hall at 7:00 p.m.

16.6.2 Inaugural - ceremonial

The inaugural meeting shall be ceremonial in nature for the purpose of the members of Council making their declaration of office and no regular business of Council shall take place.

16.6.3 Inaugural - prayer - open - adjournment

The inaugural meeting shall be opened with prayer lead by the officiating clergyman chosen by the Head of Council elect.

16.6.4 Council - organized - declaration - members made

The Council shall be deemed to be organized within the meaning of the Act when the declaration of office has been made by a majority of the members, and it may be organized and business may be proceeded with notwithstanding the failure of any of the other members to make such declaration.

16.6.5 Regular meetings - first - third - Thursday - monthly

Council shall meet on the first and third Thursday of the month in the Council Chambers at 7 p.m. unless by way of resolution the Council selects an alternate meeting date, time or another location.

16.6.6 Regular meetings - on holiday - alternate date - set

If the regular meeting date falls on a holiday, Council shall by means of a motion passed at a previous public meeting or under unusual circumstances, by agreement of a majority of the members of Council establish an alternative date upon which the Council shall meet.

16.6.7 Meeting - all - open to public

All Council and committee meetings shall be open to the public.

16.6.8 January - July - August – December-meetings - times

During the months of January, July, August and December, the Council shall meet at the same hour on such days as it may, by resolution, prescribe.

16.6.9 Special meetings - Head of Council - summon

The Head of Council may at any time summon a special meeting of Council and it shall be the duty of the Head of Council to summon a special meeting when so requested in writing by a majority of the members of Council.

16.6.10 Head of Council - vacancy - special meeting

Upon receipt of a petition of the majority of members of the Council, the Clerk shall summon a special meeting for the purpose and at the time and place mentioned in the petition.

16.6.11 Notice - special meeting - agenda - stated

A notice for a special meeting shall state the business to be considered at such special meeting and no business other than that stated in the notice shall be considered at such meeting, except with the unanimous consent of the members present.

16.6.12 Closed meetings - conditions

Pursuant to section 239 of the Act, a meeting or part of a meeting of Council or Committee may convene in closed session to discuss any of the following matters:

- a. the security of the property of the municipality or local board;
- b. personal matters about an identifiable individual, including municipal or local board employees;
- c. a proposed or pending acquisition or disposition of land by the municipality or local board;
- d. labour relations or employee negotiations;
- e. litigation or potential litigation, including matters before administrative tribunals, affecting the municipality or local board;
- f. advice that is subject to solicitor-client privilege, including communications necessary for that purpose;
- g. a matter in respect of which a Council, board, committee or other body may hold a closed meeting under another Act;
- h. information explicitly supplied in confidence to the municipality or local board by Canada, a province or territory or a Crown agency of any of them; (effective January 1, 2018)
- i. a trade secret or scientific, technical, commercial, financial or labour relations information, supplied in confidence to the municipality or local board, which, if disclosed, could reasonably be expected to prejudice significantly the competitive position or interfere significantly with the contractual or other negotiations of a person, group of persons, or organization; (effective January 1, 2018)
- j. a trade secret or scientific, technical, commercial or financial information that belongs to the municipality or local board and has monetary value or potential monetary value; (effective January 1, 2018) or
- k. a position, plan, procedure, criteria or instruction to be applied to any negotiations carried on or to be carried on by or on behalf of the municipality or local board; (effective January 1, 2018)
- l. for the purpose of educating or training the members so far as the matter is not dealt with in a way that materially advances the business or decision-making of the Council, local board or committee;

- m. a meeting shall be closed to the public if the subject matter relates to the consideration of a request under the Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act if the Council, board, commission or other body is the Head of Council of an institution for the purposes of that Act;
- n. A meeting shall be closed to the public if the subject matter relates to an ongoing investigation respecting the municipality, a local board or a municipally controlled corporation by the Ombudsman appointed under the Ombudsman Act, an Ombudsman referred to in subsection 223.13 (1) of the Act, or the investigator referred to in subsection 239.2 (1) of the Act. (By-Law – 9072-16 – August 11, 2016, By-law 9157-17 – October 19, 2017)

16.6.13 Meeting - closed - purpose stated in motion

Before holding a meeting or part of a meeting that is to be closed to the public, a resolution shall be adopted which states:

- a. the fact of the holding of the closed meeting; and
- b. the general nature of the matter to be considered at the closed meeting.

16.6.14 Meeting- not closed- public- vote

Subject to Section 16.6.12, a meeting shall not be closed to the public during the taking of a vote. Despite section 244 of the Municipal Act, 2001, a meeting may be closed to the public during a vote if,

- a. Subsections 239 (2) or (3) of the Municipal Act, 2001 permits or requires the meeting to be closed to the public; and
- b. The vote is for a procedural matter or for giving directions or instructions to officers, employees or agents of the City, Board or Committee of either of them or persons retained by or under a contract with the City or Board.

16.6.15 Meeting- closed- attendance

The CAO shall prepare a closed meeting agenda to be circulated to members of Council.

16.6.16 Meeting-closed-record

The Clerk shall record all vote(s)/direction(s) provided during closed sessions which relate only to the direction provided by Council pursuant to Section 239(6)(b) of the Municipal Act, 2001. Copies of these records containing only the vote/direction provided by Council will be distributed to Council only, and included with the following closed session agenda. Any inaccuracies in the recording of the votes/direction shall be addressed during the following closed session. The record of vote(s)/direction(s) kept during closed sessions will be subject to the provisions of the Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

16.6.17 Meeting - closed - inquiries - response

The response of members to inquiries about any matter dealt with by Council at a closed meeting, prior to its being reported publicly, shall be "no comment" or words to that effect.

16.6.18 Commencement - time change - authority

If in the opinion of the Chief Administrative Officer there is insufficient "Closed Session" business to require the meeting to commence at 6 p.m. The Chief Administrative Officer is empowered to set the commencement of the Closed Session at a later time. When there is no Closed Session business put forth, the regular meeting shall commence in accordance with Section 16.6.5 entitled "Regular meetings - first - third - Thursday - monthly."

16.6.19 Disclosure – by majority – quorum – requirement

When a majority of members has disclosed an interest under the Municipal Conflict of Interest Act, the remaining number of members at that meeting shall be deemed to constitute a quorum, provided such number is not less than two. (By-law 9157-17 – October 19, 2017)

16.6.20 Quorum present - call to order

As soon after the hour of the meeting as there shall be a quorum present, the Head of Council shall take the Chair and call the meeting to order.

16.6.21 Quorum - not present - adjournment - names recorded

Unless there is a quorum present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the meeting of the Council, the meeting shall be considered adjourned and the Clerk shall take down the names of the members present at the expiration of such fifteen minutes.

16.6.22 Head absent - quorum present - Chair - elected

In the event that the Head of Council, or in his/her absence the appointed Acting Head of Council, does not attend within fifteen minutes after the time appointed, the Clerk shall call the members to order and, if a quorum be present, a Chair shall be chosen who shall preside during the meeting or until the arrival of the Head of Council.

16.6.23 Non-member - during sittings - permission - required

No person except members and officers of the Council shall be allowed to come within the bar during the sittings of the Council without the permission of the Council.

Article 7 - Rules of Conduct - Council Members

16.7.1 Member of Council - prohibitions

A member of Council shall not:

- a. speak disrespectfully of reigning Sovereign or of any member of the Royal Family, or of the Governor-General, Lieutenant-Governor, or person administering the Government of the Dominion or of this province;
- b. speak on any subject other than the subject under debate;
- c. criticize any decision of the Council except for the purpose of moving that the question be reconsidered or rescinded;
- d. disturb the Council by any disorderly deportment or conduct;
- e. use profane or offensive words or insulting expressions;
- f. disobey the rules of Council or a decision of the Chair or the Council on points of order or on the interpretation of the Rules of Procedure;
- g. leave their seat or make any noise or disturbance while a vote is being taken or until the result is declared;
- h. speak to the same question or in reply for longer than five minutes without leave of the Chair;
- i. speak more than once to the same question, without leave of the Chair, except in explanation of a material part of his/her speech which may have been misconceived and in doing so he/she is not to introduce a new matter;
- j. shall resist the rules of the Council, or disobey the decision of the Head of Council, or of the Council on questions of order or practice, or upon the interpretation of the rules of the Council.

16.7.2 Member of Council - speaking - permission - authority

A member of Council shall:

- a. obtain the permission of the Chair to speak, prior to speaking to a question or motion;
- b. have the right to speak first in debate, if he/she is the author of the "question on the floor" or other motion under consideration.

Article 8 - Rules of Debate

16.8.1 Call to order - no debate - explanation

A member called to order from the Chair shall immediately cease to speak but may afterwards explain and the Council, if appealed to, shall decide the case, but without debate; if there be no appeal, the decision of the Head of Council shall be final.

16.8.2 Questions of order - decision - appeal - order

Questions of order arising in Committee of the Whole shall be decided by the Chair, subject to an appeal to the Head of Council, and if any disorder should arise in the Committee, the Head of Council shall resume the Chair, without any question being put.

16.8.3 Motion - to rise - report - decided - without debate

On motion in Committee of the Whole to rise and report, the question shall be decided without debate.

16.8.4 Motion - to rise -without report - leave Chair - in order

A motion in Committee of the Whole to rise without reporting, or that the Chairperson leave the Chair, shall always be in order and shall take precedence over any other motion.

16.8.5 Debate - allowed affirmative vote - deemed negative

On the motion set out in Section 16.8.4, debate shall be allowed but no member shall speak more than once and on an affirmative vote the subject referred to the Committee shall be considered as disposed of in the negative and the Head of Council shall resume the Chair and proceed with the next agenda.

16.8.6 Disclosure - pecuniary interest - member - absent

Every member who is absent from a meeting of Council when a matter in which he/she has a pecuniary interest is discussed must disclose such interest at the next meeting he/she attends.

16.8.7 Disobedience - order to leave - exception - apology

In case any member shall so resist or disobey any provisions of this Article/Chapter, the member may be ordered by the Council to leave his/her seat for that meeting, and in case of refusing to do so, the member may, on the order of the Head of Council, be removed there from by the police; but in case of ample apology being made by the offender, the member may, by vote of the Council, be permitted forthwith to take his/her seat.

16.8.8 Motion - seconded - read - requested

When a motion is seconded, it shall be read by the Clerk if requested. All written motions shall be signed by the mover and the seconder.

16.8.9 Motion - seconded - withdrawn - before decision

After a motion is duly seconded, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the Council, but may, with permission of the Council, be withdrawn at any time before decision or amendment.

16.8.10 Motion - to adjourn - in order

A motion to adjourn the Council or to adjourn the debate shall always be in order, but no second motion to the same effect shall be made in the event the first motion is defeated until after some intermediate business has been dealt with.

16.8.11 Motion - to adjourn - seconded - form

A motion to adjourn, which must be seconded, shall be in the form "that this meeting adjourn."

16.8.12 Motion - to adjourn - opinion - qualifications - added

A motion to adjourn the Council by adding any expression of opinion or qualification shall not come within the terms of this rule.

16.8.13 Motions - precedence - not amendable - debatable

The several motions set out in Section 16.8.23 shall have precedence in the order in which they are named and Section 18.8.23 (b), (e) and (f) shall be neither amendable nor debatable.

16.8.14 Motion - amendment - different subject - prohibited

An amendment modifying the intention of a motion shall be in order, but an amendment relating to a different subject shall not be in order.

16.8.15 Motion - amendment - to amendment - one only

Only one amendment shall be allowed to an amendment and any amendment more than one must be to the main question.

16.8.16 Motion - amendment - presentation

Amendments shall be presented in the following manner according to the particular need:

- a. I move to amend by adding the word(s) ...;
- b. I move to amend by inserting the word(s) ... before (or after) the word ...;
- c. I move to amend by striking out the word(s) ...;
- d. I move to amend by striking out the word(s) ... and inserting the word(s) ...; or
- e. I move to amend by substituting for the pending motion (or amendment) the following ...

16.8.17 Motion - amendments - reverse order - than moved

Amendments shall be put in the reverse order to that in which they are moved.

16.8.18 Motion - amendment - submitted - decided - before vote

Every amendment submitted shall be stated orally (or in writing if lengthy or complicated), and shall be decided (or withdrawn) before the main question is put to the vote.

16.8.19 Motion - to divide - form

The motion to divide shall be put forthwith without debate in the form, "I move to divide the resolution so as to consider separately" and, if this motion is resolved in the affirmative, then the main motion, in its divided portions, is then to be decided forthwith.

16.8.20 Pecuniary interest - exclusion - discussion - debate

A member disclosing a pecuniary interest shall not take part in the discussion or vote on such question.

16.8.21 Privilege - consideration - immediate

Whenever any matter of privilege arises, it shall be immediately taken into consideration.

16.8.22 Question - motion - in debate - permitted - limitation

Any member may require the question or motion under discussion to be read at any time during the debate, but not so as to interrupt a member while speaking.

16.8.23 Question - under consideration - motions – received

When a question is under consideration, no motion shall be received, unless:

- a. to amend;
- b. to lay on the table;
- c. to postpone indefinitely;
- d. to postpone to a certain time;
- e. to adjourn; and
- f. to move the previous question.

16.8.24 Question - previous - preclude - amendment - debate

The previous question, until it is decided, shall preclude all amendment and debate of the main motion, and shall be put forthwith without debate in the form "I move the previous question."

16.8.25 Questions - previous - affirmative - negative

If the motion set out in Section 16.8.24 is resolved in the affirmative, then the main motion is put immediately without amendment or debate; but if the motion for the previous question is resolved in the negative, then the debate on the previous question may resume.

16.8.26 Question - distinct propositions - vote - separate

When the question under consideration contains distinct propositions, upon the request of any member, which member shall clearly state the manner in which the question is to be divided, the vote upon each proposition will be taken separately.

16.8.27 Reconsideration - next meeting - new business

A motion to reconsider is not debatable or amendable and requires a majority vote to be reconsidered. The mover of the motion must be a member who voted on the prevailing side of the motion being reconsidered. If the action approved in the original motion cannot be reversed the motion cannot be reconsidered. If the motion for reconsideration is not made until a following meeting, it shall be brought forward under "New Business."

16.8.28 Reconsideration - no more than once - annually

No question shall be reconsidered more than once during a twelve month period following the date on which the question was decided, nor shall a vote to reconsider be reconsidered.

16.8.29 Reconsideration - vote to reconsider

If a motion to reconsider is decided in the affirmative, such reconsideration of the original motion shall become the next agenda item. Debate on the motion to be reconsidered may proceed as though it had never previously been voted on.

16.8.30 Reconsideration - member - previously absent

A member who is absent at the time a vote is taken on a motion which subsequently becomes the subject of a motion for reconsideration, shall be deemed for the purposes of reconsideration to have voted with the majority.

16.8.31 Recorded vote - called for

Any member of Council prior to the vote being taken on any matter may request a recorded vote. The member who moved the resolution shall vote first followed by each member present in alphabetical order. The Clerk shall record the vote of each member of Council and state the results of the vote.

16.8.32 Reply - substantive - motion - only

A reply is allowed to a member who has made a substantive motion to the Council but not to any member who has moved an amendment, the previous question, or an instruction to a committee.

16.8.33 Rules - privileges - motion - to the contrary

Whenever the Head of Council is of the opinion that a motion is contrary to the rules and privileges of the Council, he/she shall apprise the members thereof immediately before putting the question and shall cite the rule or authority applicable to the case without argument or comment.

16.8.34 Speaker - recognition - by Chair

Any member desiring to speak, and upon being recognized by the Head of Council or other presiding officer shall address the Chair. When two or more members wish to speak, the Head of Council shall recognize them in order.

16.8.35 Vote - required - all members present - exception

Every member who is present in the Council Chambers when a question is put shall vote, unless prohibited from voting by the provisions of the Municipal Conflict of Interest Act. In the event any member refuses to vote, his/her vote shall be counted in the negative.

16.8.36 Vote result disagreement - objection - immediate

If a member disagrees with the announcement of the Head of Council that a question is carried or lost, the member, but only immediately after the declaration by the Head of Council, may object to the Head of Council's declaration and may require a recorded vote to be taken.

16.8.37 Vote - questions - taken - second vote - requirements

When a question has been brought before the Council and voted upon, it shall not be voted upon a second time unless a resolution to reconsider is moved by a member from among those who voted with the majority.

Article 9 - Special Committees

16.9.1 Established - by resolution - as necessary

Special committees of Council may be established by the Council at any time during the year as deemed necessary by resolution of the Council.

16.9.2 Boards - committees - appointment policy

Appointments required to boards and committees shall be as provided for under Council's Appointments Policy for Council members and members of the public.

16.9.3 Non-Council members - appointed

If deemed advisable, Council may appoint non-members of the Council to special committees.

16.9.4 Non-Council members - policies - established

The appointment of non-Council members to special committees shall be conducted as provided from time to time by the policies established by Council relating to the appointment of committees.

16.9.5 Reports - considerations - matters referred - only

Special committees shall consider and report to Council on such matters which are directly related to their mandate.

16.9.6 Council - attendance - permitted - voting - prohibited

Members of the Council may attend the meetings of special committees but shall not be allowed to vote unless the member of Council is appointed as a member of such committee.

16.9.7 Non-members - discussion - permission - required

Non-committee members shall not be allowed to take part in any discussion or debate, except by the permission of the majority of the members of the committee.

16.9.8 Absence - Council to appoint member

The Council may appoint a member thereof to act on any special committee in lieu and during the absence of any member thereof who is absent from the municipality or unable from illness to attend the meetings of such committee and the member so appointed shall be deemed a member of the Committee and entitled to act thereon only during such absence or illness.

16.9.9 Chair's refusal - Clerk - to call meeting

If the Chair of a special committee neglects or refuses to call a meeting when requested to do so by a member of the Committee, then the majority of the Committee may request the Clerk to call a meeting and the Clerk shall forthwith proceed to call a meeting of the Committee.

16.9.10 Non-attendance - member - removed - other appointed

Should any member of a special committee neglect or refuse to attend regular or properly summoned meetings of his/her committee, the Council may remove the said member from the committee and appoint another member in his/her place; or, should any committee neglect or refuse to give due attention to all business or matters before them, the Council may by resolution discharge such committee and appoint another in its stead.

16.9.11 Minority report - disagreement - report submitted

If any member of a special committee disagrees with the report submitted by the majority of the committee meeting, that member may submit a minority report.

16.9.12 Meetings of special committees

Special committees shall be deemed to have adopted the provisions of this Chapter and shall conduct meetings in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter.

16.9.13 Authority - Council - all matters - referred

No order or authority to do any matter or thing shall be recognized as emanating from any committee and all committee matters shall be referred to the Council and approved before becoming effective.

16.9.14 Minutes - recorded - approved - signed by Chair

The minutes of the transactions of every committee, in accordance with the Act, shall be accurately entered in a book provided for that purpose and at each meeting the minutes of the preceding meeting shall be submitted for confirmation or amendment and, after they have received the approval of a majority of the members present, shall be signed by the Chair.

16.9.15 Reports - presented to Council - at meetings

Special committee reports (majority and/or minority) must be presented to Council at a regular or special Council meeting.

Article 10 - Exceptions

16.10.1 Suspension - rules - two-thirds vote - required

Any one or more of these rules and orders may be temporarily suspended by a vote of two-thirds of the whole Council.

16.10.2 Roberts Rules of Order - precedence

In all unprovided cases in the proceedings of Council or in committee, Roberts Rules of Order (current edition) shall govern, a copy of which shall be made available by the Clerk at all meetings of Council.

Article 11 - Process to Fill a Vacant Seat on Council

16.11.1 Vacancy declared

In the event that there is a vacancy declared on Council, the process set out in this Article for filling the vacancy shall be followed.

16.11.2 For the position of Mayor

When the position of Mayor is declared vacant by Council pursuant to the provisions of subsection 262 (1) of the Act, the Clerk shall prepare the necessary by-law for passage at the Council meeting following the vacancy declaration to require the Clerk to proceed with a by-election to fill the vacancy in accordance with the Municipal Elections Act, 1996.

16.11.3 Exception - for the position of Mayor

If the position of Mayor is declared vacant on or after first day of January during the year of a regular election, the Council member in the position of Deputy Mayor will be automatically appointed to the position of Mayor.

16.11.4 Position of City/County Councillor - Councillor

When the position of either City/County Councillor or Councillor is declared vacant by Council pursuant to the provisions of subsection 262 (1) of the Act, the vacancy shall be filled in the manner set out in Section 16.11.5 through Section 16.11.12, inclusive.

16.11.5 Step one - offered to runner-up

The vacant position will be offered to the candidate that finished in the runner-up position in the last regular municipal election for the position of City/County Councillor or Councillor whichever is applicable.

16.11.6 Runner-up qualification requirements

For that candidate to qualify, that individual's total number of votes must be greater than 50 percent of the number of votes achieved by the candidate that finished directly before them. If the individual is unable to fill the position, proceed to step two.

16.11.7 Step two - advertisement asking for letters on interest

The Clerk will place advertisements asking individuals to apply in writing to fill the vacant City/County Councillor or Councillor seat within fourteen calendar days. The letter shall indicate their willingness to fill the position if selected. Individuals may also submit additional paperwork outlining the reasons they believe they are qualified to become a member of City/County Council or Councillor whichever is applicable.

16.11.8 Letters of interest - applicant information made public

The names and addresses of the individuals will be made public after the closing date of applications.

16.11.9 Applicants - review - in closed session

The list of applicants will then be reviewed in a closed session of Council. Redirecting eligible candidates if there are a large number of submissions, members of Council may reduce the list to between three and six names.

16.11.10 Applicant - verbal presentation - upon notification

The remaining three to six applicants will then be notified to appear at the next regular meeting of Council. Each applicant shall make a verbal presentation of up to seven minutes. There will not be a question and answer session between candidates and Councillors.

16.11.11 Replacement - selection - closed session announced

Prior to the next regular meeting of Council, Councillors will meet in a closed session to select the replacement for the vacancy. The selected individual's name will be announced by the Clerk prior to the next Council meeting. The successful individual will be sworn in at the first opportunity available after the by-law to appoint has been passed by Council.

16.11.12 Step three - by-election - unable to fill vacancy

If step two fails to draw any applications, the Council will notify the Clerk that the position of City/County Councillor or Councillor, whichever is applicable, will require a by-election to be held to fill the vacancy in accordance with the Municipal Elections Act, 1996.

Article 12 - Repeal - Enactment

16.12.1 By-law - previous

All previous procedure by-laws are hereby repealed.

16.12.2 Effective date

This Chapter shall become effective as the final passing of the enabling by-law. By-law 8935-14, September 4, 2014.
